

Worship:

In a world of self-actualization, self-promotion and self-determination Jesus urges humility and service. In fact, Jesus urges that we purposefully choose the lesser position. He tells a story to remind us that the standards of the Kingdom are surprising and odd at first to our ears. Have we heard? Scripture for Sunday includes Hebrews 13.1-2, 15-16; Psalm 27.1-4, 13-14 and Luke 14.7-14. In the second service we will observe a service of Acolyte Consecration as we recognize those young folks who are serving the church this year.

Music:

This Sunday is the second Sunday to hear and be blessed by the new "Selah Singers" in the early service. Mark and Melanie Peace will be blessing us with the offertory in both services by doing the wonderful hymn "I Surrender All". The Chancel Choir will be accompanied by four of our youth on percussion as they do the Jamaican folk song, "Fill-A-Me-Up!" which is a joyful shout for the holy spirit to fill up everyone, everywhere

Children:

We will worship with our parents this Sunday. Music will begin at 5:30pm with a snack supper, choir practice, and then enjoy some musical activities! Next Wednesday we will have a BIG Kickoff Celebration for our new year in the SuperCross Clubhouse. The fun begins at 6:00pm.

Youth:

*Our CANS series continues with a discussion of Nurture.
Leadership team meets at 4:15*

Wednesday September 1st:

The night formerly known as "Dream Night." We gather to put our heads and hearts together to see what we might hatch up for upcoming year.
